

Aggressive Driving

Aggressive and high-risk driving behaviors are unacceptable on the road. These behaviors include but are not limited to speeding, tailgating or following too closely, failing to yield the right of way, honking repeatedly for no reason, running red lights, making excessive lane changes or weaving through traffic, and passing too closely to cyclists.